

Next expected seminar-training

On January 25, 2019 at the initiative of the Department of "Electricity Supply and Renewable Energy Sources" of the Institute, on the 8th lecture hall, students of the 3rd course of "QSXEА" faculty and masters of the department participated as researcher and professor of the University of Cracow, Ph.D. A seminar-training on "BIO-ENERGY" was organized by Tursunov Obidjon Bobokulovich. The purpose of the seminar-training is to provide students with detailed information about bioenergy, prof. O.B. To familiarize students with the research work carried out by Tursunov in this field. In the first part of the event, the first year student of the department "Electricity supply and renewable energy sources" N.N. Abduganiev's t.f.d. prof. O.B. Under the guidance of Tursunov, he gave information to the participants about their work on master's dissertation on the theme "Complex study of characteristics of solid household waste in Urtachirchik district for energy efficiency". In the second part of the event, Ph.D. prof. O.B. Tursunov dwelled on bioenergetics and provided information to the participants about the research and results obtained in this field. During the seminar-training the students received a complete answer to their questions. At the end of the event the head of the department D.B. Kodirov wished the participants success and success in their further scientific work.

Seminar coordinator PhD DK Kadyrov, Master of the department "ET and VTEM" Organizer of the event
NN.Abduganiev

The press secretary of the Institute, Rakhimboy Jumaniyazov